H. S. JACOBS.

BUTSLY—Gottlieb Butsly was born in Rentigner, Canton Bern, Switzerland, on July 8, 1840, his age being 60 years, 7 months and 23 days. He emigrated to America in 1889 and settled in Black Hawk where he resided ever since. Funeral by the undersigned Sunday, March 3 at the Eagle Center church. Burial in the Eagle Center cemetery. Mr. Butsly leaves a wife and five children to mourn him.

J. L. GILLIN.

OLINGER—Maynard Max son of brother John W. and Sister Olinger, near Rose Hill, Ind., was born March 1, 1900, died March 3 1901, aged one year and three days. Little Maynard was the light of the home. His smiling face always greeted each member of the family. He only stayed a few days on this side of the river. Why was he called for so soon? The Lord had need of him and claimed his own. While he is missed in the home our loss is his eternal gain. Funeral from the Lutheran church near Rose Hill to a large audience of sympathizing friends.

TOMBAUGH—Solomon Tombaugh of Washington Co., Pa. Brother Tombaugh was a very zealous member of the Brethren church. He united with the church about fifty years ago and was for many years a deacon, faithfully discharging his duty. He married Lydia Letherman, who is also a faithful member of the church, and with her husband, for over fifty years, has been a faithful follower of the Master. On Sept. 30, 1897 they celebrated their golden wedding, that being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, at which time all their living children and grand children were present. To them were born nine children. Three died in infancy, six survive, namely, John and Elwood, farmers, who reside on the homestead; Leon H., M. D., who is located in Wankegan, Illinois; Rev. Jas. M., pastor of the Brethren church in Hagerstown, Maryland; Byron E., an attorney at the Washington bar, and Ida M., wife of D. A. Hootman, M. D., of Lone Pine, Pa. The funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by W. H. Hanna, pastor of the Christian church of Washington, Pa. Funeral took place from the old church on Pigeon Creek. Thus was laid away a faithful husband, a loving and kind father, a good citizen and neighbor, as was evidenced by the large assembly of old neighbors and friends that assembled in the old church to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. He was laid to rest by the side of his sleeping parents and deceased children on the birthday of the "father of his country." May the eye that never sleepeth keep watch over the sleeping dust until He shall bid it rise.

Only One Dollar for the Balance of the Year 1901

BUT FIVE HUNDRED NEEDED

It has been decided to offer the EVANGELIST to new subscribers the balance of the year for one dollar, and make a special effort to increase the present list to 3,000.

Except to our agents we have not heretofore made known the number of subscribers on our list. At present the list aggregates 2550, but of these quite a number have not yet renewed, and some will no doubt drop off, so that to make the full 3,000 subscribers we must count on at least 500 more. We have carefully calculated the number of papers going into each of the several Conference Districts, and so far as reliable statistics are at hand we have formulated the following proportionate table, showing how many of the 500 should go into each of the several districts so as to preserve the proper proportion:

California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Utah,		20
J. L. Hamilton, Corinne, Utah,	1
Indiana District,		95
Illinois, Iowa, Dakota and Missouri,		50
J. M. Lichty, Waterloo, Iowa,	1
Kansas, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Colorado,		50
Mrs. Margaret Kimmel, McLouth, Kan.,	3
Ohio District,		90
Mrs. John Stover, Gratis, Ohio.	2
Pennsylvania District,		95
Maryland Va., West Va., and D. C.,		90
Michigan District,		10
J. H. English, New Troy, Mich.,	1
Total,		500

This table will be repeated each week until April 1, 1901, and new subscribers coming in will be credited to the state or district from which they are sent. Pastors, agents, and all others interested in the success of our publication interests, we appeal to you for a thorough canvass of the field. Get your people together and learn into what homes the paper is now going, and where it is not going, make a list of all members in your congregation not subscribers to the EVANGELIST and then canvass them for subscriptions. Who will be the first to respond? From what state or district? Please examine this table each week and see where your district stands in the list. Let us stir up a little wholesome rivalry; it will not do us any harm and will help the Publishing House immensely. From how many districts shall we have the privilege to report next week? Remember that it will be March 1 before this paper reaches you and that will give you about five weeks or a little less to get the subscribers asked for. Take as an example the state of Indiana which claims 45 organized churches; two subscribers on an average from each congregation will give it 90 of the 95 indicated in the table.
